

PART I

THE UNION AND ITS TERRITORY

CHAPTER I

NAME AND TERRITORY OF THE UNION

Article 1

Name and territory of the Union.

- (1) India, that is Bharat, shall be a Union of States.
- (2) The States and the territories thereof shall be as specified in the First Schedule.
- (3) The territory of India shall comprise
 - (a) the territories of the States;
 - (b) the Union territories specified in the First Schedule; and
 - (c) such other territories as may be acquired.

Article 2

Admission or establishment of new States. Parliament may by law admit into the Union, or establish, new States on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

PART II

CITIZENSHIP

Article 5

Citizenship at the commencement of the Constitution. At the commencement of this Constitution, every person who has his domicile in the territory of India and

- (a) who was born in the territory of India; or
- (b) either of whose parents was born in the territory of India; or
- (c) who has been ordinarily resident in the territory of India for not less than five years immediately preceding such commencement, shall be a citizen of India.

Provided that nothing in this article shall derogate from the provisions of any law made or to be made by Parliament.

Explanation. For the purposes of this article, the expression "Union Territory" has the same meaning as in clause (30) of article 366.
